Lord Methuen and Many Men Were Wounded and Captured by Boers.

There Was a Delay in Transmission of the Report of the Engagement.

FORTY-ONE BRITISH WERE KILLED

London, March 11.—It was announced yesterday afternoon that General Lord Methuen and four guns had been captured by the Boers, commanded by Gen. Delarey. The news came like a thunderbolt to London. The extra editions of the evening papers giving an account of the disaster were eagerly bought up, and their readers hurried through the streets with anxious faces, and bitter remarks were passed on the subject of the government's declaration that the war in South Africa was over. The news came too late to affect business on the stock exchange, but excited curb dealings quickly followed the closing, in which South Africans slumped heavy.

The news caused excitement in the mine market. Throgmorton street was thronged with South African operators, eagerly inquiring for details of the British defeat, and watching the effect of the announcement. Shares were offered freely at first, but by 6 o'clock the excitement had abated and the curb tone hardened.

The news was received in the house of commons amid great excitement. The reading of Lord Kitchener's telegram by the war secretary, Mr. Broderick, was listened to in deep silence, which was broken by loud Irish cheers. Instantly there were cries of "shame," "shame," from the government benches. Then the Irish members seemed to think better of their outbreak and suddenly subsided. The subsequent eulogistic references to General Methuen were received with cheers.

In brief Lord Kitchener announced that General Methuen was captured, wounded, with four guns; three British officers and thirty-eight men were killed and five officers and seventy-two men were wounded. In addition one officer and 200 men were reported missing.

The column was moving in two parties. One with the ox wagons, left Two Bosch at 8 a. m. The other with the mule wagons started an hour later. Just before dawn the Boers attacked. Before reinforcements could reach them the rear guard broke. In the morning a large number of Boers galloped upon both flanks. These at first were checked by the flank parties, but the panic and stampede of the mules had begun, and all the mule wagons, with a terrible mixture of mounted men, rushed past the ox wagons. All efforts to check them were unavailing. Major Paris collected forty men and occupied a position about a mile in front of the ox wagons, which were then halted. After a gallant but useless defense the enemy rushed into the ox wagons, and Methuen was wounded in the thigh. Paris, being surrounded, surrendered at 10 a. m. Methuen is still in the Boer camp.

SECRET WEDDING.

PEOPLE OF METROPOLIS LEARN
OF A MARRIAGE THAT OCCURRED IN MAY.

Metropolis, Ill., March 11.—Matrimonial surprises were certainly in store for Metropolis people Sunday and yesterday. The first was the announcement of the marriage of Mr. Sheridan Waters to Miss Jessie Elliott Saturday at Marion and the next was the announcement of the secret marriage of Mr. Will H. Wright and Miss Effie Hensley, which occurred last May.

On the evening of the 15th of last May, just before Mr. Wright left for Chicago to accept a position with the large department store, The Fair, he and Miss Hensley quietly sought the official services of County Judge Sawyer and were secretly married. So well did they succeed in keeping the secret that the most intimate friends and relatives of the bride and groom knew nothing of the wedding. He came here a few days ago, got everything in readiness, announced the marriage and took his bride to Chicago to live.

A little less romantic, but nevertheless a surprise to their friends, was the wedding of Mr. Sheridan Waters,

A BIG JUMP.

BUT THE ALLEGED FIGHTERS
ESCAPED THE POLICE.

About 10 o'clock last night officers were called to Seventh and Adams street to the colored Old Fellows hall to arrest two fighters who had been starting a little rough house in the hall. There was an entertainment in progress and when the officers arrived and ascended the steps the two fighters jumped out the second story of the building alighting in the soft mud in the back yard. They escaped. The names of the men have been given to the police as Booker Harris and Milton Woodward. No one was injured in the difficulty.

The program covering the flying visit of Prince Henry was carried out as planned, in a manner befitting the dignity of the royal visitor.

Prince Henry and party left at 3:15 over the Pennsylvania road for New York.

BACK TO WORK.

Leather Workers and Rehkopf Company Agree.

The Scale Signed and as Many Men as Needed Return to Work.

The leather workers have won in their walk out and this morning returned to work in the Rehkopf shops.

Yesterday afternoon they waited on Mr. Rehkopf and stated clearly what they wanted, and their reasons for making the demands. Mr. Rehkopf agreed to sign up and will do so at his earliest convenience. The men did not want any trouble and never thought that their demands would meet with such strong opposition. They went about their work peacefully and avoided all trouble.

The harness shops are all working full force and all the men that can well be used, considering the dull trade, have been put to work in the saddle and collar departments.

The men are perfectly satisfied with the agreement reached and the best of harmony exists between the proprietor and his employees.

PAY FOR CARRIERS

The Bill Passed Yesterday, Fixing
Mail Carriers Pay.

This Radically Charges the Rural Free Delivery Bill as First Presented.

CONTRACT SYSTEM UNDER BAN

Washington, March 11.—The bill to classify the rural free delivery service and place the carriers under the contract system was passed yesterday afternoon, but in a form that completely changed the purpose for which it was framed. All the provisions relating to the placing of carriers under the contract system were stricken out and the salary system not only was continued, but the maximum salary of carriers was increased from $500 to $600 per annum.

A motion offered by Mr. Williams, Democrat of Illinois, to re-commit the bill with the instructions to report back an amendment providing for the dismissal from the service of carriers who should use their influence in favor of any particular candidate was voted down—96 to 141.

As passed the bill classifies the rural free delivery service and fixes the compensation of employees as follows:

Special agents in charge of divisions, not exceeding $2,400 per annum; special agents, four classes, graded from $1,300 to $1,600; route inspectors, four classes, from $900 to $1,200; clerks, four classes, from $900 to $1,200.

ARTICLE WHICH HAD BEEN SUBMITTED FOR REVIEW.

New York, March 11.—Count Tolstoi, who has been seriously ill of late, has given a singular proof of his literary conscientiousness, according to a Paris correspondent. Previous to his illness he had sent to a Paris review an article which will appear shortly. On the very night when he and those around him believed that he was dying it occurred to him that he had omitted some important point in the article.

His strength rallied as though for a last effort and he dictated the correction.

PROTRACTED MEETING.

A large congregation heard the Rev. F. G. Tyrrell of St. Louis at the First Christian church last evening. He is a most eloquent preacher and pleased his hearers. He is familiar to many through his sermons which are often given at length in the St. Louis papers. The protracted meeting at this church started off well last night, and there is good prospect of a successful one. The singing is an excellent feature of the meeting. There will be service each afternoon at 3 o'clock and every night at 7:30.

No cause is given for the act.

McDaniel has been arrested, but will not make a statement. Jenkins may recover, but his condition is precarious.

"To the right solution of every

SENATOR HANNA'S SPEECH.

(Louisville Commercial.)

Senator Hanna's speech in favor of the shipping bill was one of the ablest that the senate has listened to in many years. He talked like a man of business and like a statesman; there was no oratorical display, but when Tillman attempted to become insulting by asking about Morgan's steamship purchases, Senator Hanna stopped and insisted upon knowing why

Tillman thought he knew anything about what Mr. Morgan was doing.

"I know nothing about the purchase of the Leyland line by J. P. Morgan and Co.," said Mr. Hanna, "any more than the senator does. That is simply the investment of American capital.

Under the provisions of this bill not a single one of those vessels ever will come under an American register or an American flag."

Then Tillman tried a new tack and wanted to know why Emperor William "did not go to England and get his yacht built, instead of coming to this country." It was apparently Till-man's intention to draw Mr. Hanna into a discussion of irrelevant matters, but that shrewd man of affairs

did not go into any technical discussion of the relative yacht building facilities of the two countries, but laughingly told the South Carolinian that the emperor wanted the best and he suggested that Mr. Tillman might not have heard of the American yachts' victories over British built yachts.

But the strongest point in Senator

Hanna's speech was his declaration that not only was labor the only item

to be considered in protective legislation, but he added:

I stand by that proposition, but I go further. The ore in the ground is worth about 25 cents a ton. After it was touched by the hand of man, it was labor. Ninety-five per cent of the cost of a ship built in American shipyards or in any shipyard is purely labor. The construction of a ship in the United States as against that in other England, Germany or France, simply measures the difference of wages and the efficiency of American labor.

President McKinley never uttered a truer or a more pleasing phrase than this that the practical Ohio senator has framed. It is the keynote of Republicanism, and it marks the party's position with absolute precision.

Protection to American industry

means protection to American labor, and no man who is not absolutely loyal to the doctrine of protection has any right in the Republican party. A free trader may act with the Republicans on temporary or local issues

but he cannot be a Republican.

The fourth conference of Republicans of the house of representatives will be held this evening at Washington to further consider the Cuban question. The present matter under discussion is whether or not we shall legislate to the probable detriment of some of our home industries for the sake of benefiting Cuba. or Not the still have to buy a million tons a year from other countries to supply the demand. Furthermore, that the beet sugar interests are not as important as the future of Cuba, and that this government is compelled to do something for the latter's relief. It is impossible to determine at present which will win, but there are staunch leaders on both sides, and each is claiming the victory. The question is a knotty one, any way it is regarded; in fact, one of the most perplexing that has ever confronted congress.

When Paducah enters the second class, there are a number of appointments to be made. These appointments are of the greatest importance to Paducah, and greatly concern the welfare of the people. The progress of Paducah may depend to a large degree on the choice of the mayor, when he makes his appointments. It is to be hoped that on the board of public works and fire and police commissioners, he will appoint good, progressive men. It is fully understood what obligations the holder of an important office such as that of mayor is under to the politicians, and that politicians are usually good for nothing but politics. For this reason it is urged that good men be given the preference. It is for the interest of the city that men of ability be placed in the respective positions that are to be filled. The welfare, prosperity and advancement of the city for the next three or four years may depend on it. It will take a great deal to counteract the influence of the cow-tamers who now adorn the councilmanic branch of government. The people ask only for the appointment of the best available men, no matter what their politics. With the right kind of men in charge of public improvements, Paducah will regain some of the ground she had lost in the past few years.

The visit of Prince Henry to America must have been a pleasant revelation to the distinguished visitor, for few foreigners who have not been here have any adequate idea of what America really is. Then, he was doubtless pleased with the kind and number of people he met. He certainly could have been treated no better anywhere. The people of this country were glad to welcome him. He represented one of the greatest nations of the world, and it was only fitting that he should be treated as his rank required. Today he sailed for home. His trip was almost a continued ovation, and he took back with him many costly presents, as well as many that are valuable for other reasons. During his stay Prince Henry conducted himself with dignity and affability, made friends everywhere. We trust the impression America made on him is as pleasant as the one he made on America.

The United States has delivered to Turkey another note touching on the capture of Miss Ellen Stone, the missionary. It is asserted that the prisoners were captured, the ransom paid and the prisoners released, in Turkey, and intimates that reparation must be made. Evidently we will soon have another bill against Turkey to collect.

The socialists profess to be very much disgusted with Americans for their courteous treatment of Prince Henry. But Americans, as a rule, are equally as disgusted with the socialists for various other reasons.

A Russian general who was responsible for the massacre of 5,000 Chinese has just been dismissed from the Russian army. It is presumed he should have made it 10,000.

It is to be hoped that when Mayor Yeiser appoints his aldermen he will make a better selection than the people did last November in choosing a city council.

BANQUET GIVEN LAST EVENING BY MR. AND MRS. S. H. CLARK.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Clark, at their home at Ninth and Clay streets, gave a reception and banquet to members of the "Quo Vadis" company in honor of their daughter, Miss Flora May Clark, the leading lady, last night after the performance.

The house was prettily decorated for the occasion, and the guests spent a most pleasant time, although they were necessarily a little late in getting there.

The banquet was one of the most elaborate ever given in Paducah, and the tables fairly groaned beneath a weight of every conceivable good thing to eat and drink. The courses were interspersed with renditions of various kinds from members of the company, which proved pleasant entertainment. It was a congenial crowd, and all regretted the arrival of the wee wee hours, when it was time to go home. Mr. and Mrs. Clark and daughter, Miss Eugenia, proved able host and hostesses, and the occasion will always be pleasantly remembered by those there.

He took about a half ounce of the drug about 9:30 o'clock and was in a critical condition when Drs. Sheldon Cohn and Nat Morris arrived at his bedside. They soon began operation of pumps and in few minutes and the drug from his stomach and revived him. He is a boy of considerable vitality and is able to be up and out on the streets today. Mr. Murphey did not give any other reason for attempting to take his life than that he was in an angry mood and in a frenzy took the drug. Mr. Murphey is a young man who has many friends in the city. He is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Murphey and has been in the employ of the Illinois Central railroad.

Great men look into other people's mirrors; small men into their own.

Women don't worry so much about how the other half lives as how the better half lives away from home.

There's never any telling when a man asks a girl to marry him whether she is going to refuse him and be sorry or accept him and be sorrier still.

A Cause of Headache

One Very Common Cause, Generally Over-Looked.

Headache is a Common and Distressing Affliction and May Be Due to a Number of Causes.—The Principal Cause of Frontal Headache is Here Pointed Out.

Headache is a symptom, an indication of derangement or disease in some organ, and the cause of the headache is difficult to locate because so many diseases have headache as a prominent symptom; derangement of the stomach and liver, heart trouble, kidney disease, lung trouble, eye strain or ill fitting glasses, all produce headache, and if we could always locate the organ which is at fault the cure of obstinate headaches would be a much simpler matter.

However, for that form of headache called frontal headache, pain back of the eyes and in forehead, the cause is now known to be catarrh of the head and throat; when the headache is located in the back of head and neck it is often caused from catarrh of the stomach or liver.

At any rate catarrh is the most common cause of such headaches and the cure of the catarrh causes a prompt disappearance of the headache.

There is at present no treatment for catarrh so convenient and effective as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, a new internal remedy in tablet form, composed of antiseptics like eucalyptol, guaiacol and blood root which act upon the blood and cause the elimination of the catarrhal poison from the system through the natural channels.

Miss Coria Ainsley, a prominent school teacher in one of our normal schools, speaks of her experience with Stuart's Catarrh Tablets as a cure for them. She says: "I suffered daily from severe frontal headache and pain in and back of the eyes, at times so intensely as to incapacitate me in my daily duties. I had suffered from catarrh more or less for years, but never thought it was the cause of my headaches, but finally became convinced that such was the case because the headaches were always worse whenever I had a cold or fresh attack of catarrh."

"Stuart's Catarrh Tablets were highly recommended to me as a safe and pleasant catarrh cure, and after using a few 50 cent boxes which I procured from my druggist I was surprised and delighted to find that both the catarrh and headaches had gone for good."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cents per package, under the guarantee of the proprietors that they contain absolutely no cocaine (found in so many catarrh cures) or opium (so common in cheap cough cures), nor any harmful drug. They contain simply the wholesome antiseptics necessary to destroy and drive from the system the germs of catarrhal disease.

KNOCKED OUT

Washington, March 11.—The United States supreme court has decided the Illinois anti-trust statute to be unconstitutional because of the provision of the law exempting agricultural products and live stock from the operation of the law. The decision was rendered in the case of Thomas Connolly and others against the Union Sewer Pipe company of Ohio and was delivered by Justice Harlan.

ELECTRIC RAILWAY.

Several Union City capitalists are agitating a movement of a street railway for Fulton and Union City. They are very enthusiastic and will push the project which may materialize. The plan is to build a street car line to run over the towns of Fulton and Union City and also a through line from Union City to Fulton to haul passengers and freight.

Mr. Jack Mann is in from another trip west for Dreyfus & Weil.

COLOMBIA'S CLAIMS.

Washington, March 11.—The United States minister to Colombia reports to the state department, under date of March 3, that during the preceding week the government troops had steadily advanced, occupying important positions near Bogota, which had been vacated by the revolutionists, who are understood to be in a desperate situation and seeking an opportunity to escape.
